2nd February 1934] [Sriman M. G. Patnaik Mahasayo]

incorrect or insufficient. So far as the two amendments are concerned, I think that no case has been made out and no facts have been substantiated in their favour. With regard to the main resolution . . ."

Mr. SAMI VENKATACHALAM CHETTI :—" I think the hon. Member cannot speak on the main motion. He said that all the remarks made so far on the main motion are irrelevant."

* Sriman M. G. PATNAIK Mahasayo :—" With regard to the main motion, I think, speeches delivered so far did not say that the Bill is quite unnecessary. It might have been stated that the Bill is based on wrong principles and that there is no necessity for the amendment of the Act as proposed by the hon. the Chief Minister. It was stated that the Bill might be improved in several ways. If that is so, that matter can be looked into at the Select Committee stage. I do not think that all the details should be discussed now. The hon. the Chief Minister does not say that the Bill, as it is, should be accepted by the House just now. The Bill will of course be referred to the Select Committee. That is the motion now before the House. Therefore all we have to say at present is whether the Bill proceeds on good principles or not. In order to prove that point, the only question that has to be considered is whether there are really financial difficulties or not, and how those difficulties can be got over. That is the only point that we should address ourselves to. That was not done so far. On the other hand, hon. Members have been saying that the taluk boards should remain. These are matters of detail which need not be discussed on the floor of the House now . . ."

Mr. SAMI VENKATACHALAM CHETTI :—" The hon. Member is casting reflections on the Chair."

At this stage the House adjourned for lunch.

After Lunch (3 p.m.)
